

Arise shine

B

Arise, shine, for your light has come,

A

And the glory of the Lord God has dawned upon you.

B

For behold, over all the land

A

Dark and deepest gloom is a shroud upon the peoples.

B

But over you the Lord will rise,

A

B

And His glory will be made manifest among you, among you.

A E A E B

Nations will stream to your light,

A E A E B

And kings to your dawning bright.

A E A E F#

E

Your gates will be open, by day or by night, they won't close.

F#

B

Arise, shine!

B

You will be called the dwelling place,

A

And the City of the Most Holy One, Jehovah.

B

Salvation will replace your walls,

A

And your city gates will resound with praise forever.

B

Violence and the careless waste

A

B

Of the human race will all be erased. Hallelujah! Hallelujah! (refrain)

E

F#

The moon will not shine in any night,

E

F#

And the stars will fade to black, out of sight.

C#m

F#

G#m

And the sun will bow before the radiant glory of the Lamb

E

When the kingdom of this world

F#

A

B

Has become the Kingdom of our God! (refrain)

Words and music by Dave Johnson and Dwight Huthwaite

© 2004 Dave Johnson and Dwight Huthwaite